"WHO'S WHO DIRECTORY"

(a supplement to this volume)

- (1) in which 99 per cent of Biographees are classified by name under the professional or commercial activities in which they have become best known or most successful.
- (2) The only Who's Who to set out the chief active occupation of the Biographee in capital letters, thereby featuring the present title of the Biographee for address purposes, and separating the biography into two lucid sections.

"WHO'S WHO DIRECTORY"

CAN BE USED TO ADVANTAGE TO DETERMINE THE REFERENCE ADEQUACY (GROUP OR GENERAL) OF THIS NATIONAL WHO'S WHO AS COMPARED TO ANY OTHER IN ITS FIELD. THIS APPLIES PARTICULARLY TO ANOTHER PUBLICATION IN CANADA USING A SIMILAR TITLE (WHO'S WHO IN CANADA).

This Work, "The Canadian Who's Who", contains the biographies of over 4,000 illustrious Canadians, at home and abroad, not to be found in any other Canadian Work.

HOW DOES A PERSON GET INTO A WHO'S WHO?

DO YOU KNOW that the only Who's Who - in Canada in which no biographical sketch can be paid for is

"THE CANADIAN WHO'S WHO"

(not illustrated)

Because no monetary or other consideration can effect a listing, no salesmen are employed to solicit full-, half-, quarter-page or photo-sketch space. The listings are of top-level men and women who are of actual or probable reference interest according to the editors' estimate. To accomplish this reference completeness, a listing is not optional with the Biographee.

TO ALL BIOGRAPHEES

If you are listed in this volume, the Editor respectfully suggests that you survey the "Who's Who Directory" (supplement) easily found by using the book tab.

Check over the names in your special field of activity, and of any other group of which you may have knowledge.

In strict confidence, the names of any reference-worthy persons found missing would be sincerely appreciated by the Editor. It is understood that no one whose biography has appeared or may appear in this work, has been or may be obliged to purchase anything from us whatsoever. Only on that basis can we continue to produce a Who's Who that will reflect credit upon Canada and Canadians.

"IF YOU ARE IN A WHO'S WHO, AND CAN'T 'BUY IN', THE ANSWER IS — YOU ARE A SUCCESS."

FOREWORD

A change in format was adopted for the present and future issues. Academic degrees, fellowships in the learned societies and other titles and awards have been abbreviated after the name of the entry.

Occurrences during the course of printing (with the exception of deaths on page xvii) have not been included in this book. Instead, they will be contained in a booklet posted to every subscriber. For two reasons this new method should prove satisfactory. The editor will be able to print the latest information up to the final two weeks before issue. The user of the volume, aside from definite awareness of the fact that some changes have occurred, will find it easier to use a separate record than to turn a large book back and forth. Then, if desirable, significant changes may be noted in the margins.

To eliminate possible confusion, the editor must continue to emphasize the fact that there are two publications in Canada using the title Who's Who. In this publication, containing the biographies of over 4,000 Canadians at home and abroad not to found listed in any other Canadian biographical reference, no payment of any kind to secure inclusion or exclusion has ever been requested or received.
